

AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK NAMES ALAN LAFOLLETTE VICE PRESIDENT AND RESIDENTIAL LENDING SALES MANAGER

OMAHA, Neb. (February 24, 2010) American National Bank and Peoples National Bank have named Alan LaFollette vice president, residential lending sales manager. He will be responsible for achieving division sales goals and objectives and increasing customer satisfaction, productivity, and profitability in the area of first mortgages, through the development and motivation of staff.

LaFollette has more than 23 years of sales and sales management experience, having been employed with Norwest Financial, Wells Fargo Home Mortgage and most recently as second vice president of mortgage production at First National Bank of Omaha. The majority of his time involved service and sales efforts in the Omaha and Council Bluffs area. He graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree from Hastings College.